Law School CLEs and Special Events

Hamline

- ▲ Tax-Exempt Entities, Politics and the IRS

Congressional inquiries and a new "Community Benefit" Compliance Check Questionnaire from the Internal Revenue Service are but two indications of a broader concern with whether tax-exempt organizations provide sufficient community benefits to justify the costs associated with their status. Leading a discussion of these matters will be a senior official from the IRS, Ms. Renee Wells.
Date: December 13, 2006
Location: Hamline University School of Law
Contact: Deb Lange 651-523-2122 or dlange@hamline.edu

William Mitchell

- ▲ Morning CLE Series: Business Leadership and Succession Planning

Orchestrating an effective business exit and succession plan is a major challenge for business and estate planning lawyers. Visiting Professor John Bedosky will identify factors that impede successful business transitions and present strategies for overcoming them.
Date: December 15, 2006
Location: William Mitchell College of Law
Cost & Credits: $10.00. 1 CLE.
