Law School CLEs and Special Events

Hamline

▲ 2006 Dean's Dinner with John Sexton

The keynote speaker for the 2006 Dean's Dinner is New York University President John Sexton who will challenge the entire framework of academics through his discussion of the topic, "Law Schools in the Context of the Research University." Historically, the dinner has evolved to become an annual event that seeks to challenge and inspire the scope of legal education.

Date: November 16
Location: Hamline University School of Law
Contact: (651) 523-2338 or sstephan01@hamline.edu

▲ Tax-Exempt Entities, Politics and the IRS

Congressional inquiries and a new "Community Benefit" Compliance Check Questionnaire from the Internal Revenue Service are but two indications of a broader concern with whether tax-exempt organizations provide sufficient community benefits to justify the costs associated with their status. This presentation will be followed by a panel discussion of the issues by prominent attorneys and a question-and-answer session.

Date: December 6
Location: Hamline University School of Law
Contact: (651) 523-2122 or dlange@hamline.edu

Minnesota Justice Foundation

▲ 19th Annual Awards Celebration

This event will honor six members of the legal community for their distinguished service in pro bono and public interest work. Those being honored are: Rebecca Lucero, University of Minnesota; Kimberly Lowe, Fredrikson & Byron, PA; Joy Bartscher, Neighborhood Justice Center; Richard Cox, Faegre & Benson, LLP; Marie Failing, Hamline University School of Law; and Ann Cofell, St. Cloud Area Legal Services Division, Mid-Minnesota Legal Assistance

Date: November 9

University of St. Thomas School of Law

▲ Catholicism and the Court: The Relevance of Faith Traditions to Jurisprudence

For the first time in our nation's history, a Catholic majority sits on the Supreme Court. What accounts for the increase in Catholic Justices? Is there a recognizable Catholic jurisprudence? Does religion play a role in judicial decision making? The preliminary conference program includes a keynote address by the Hon. Diarmuid O'Scannlain of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit, and three panel discussions.

William Mitchell College of Law

▲ National Security Forum: Right to Know vs Wrong to Tell

A free press is essential to a democracy. But since 9/11, restrictions on gathering and reporting the news have been imposed by an administration that reflexively invokes public safety. Reporters from national print and broadcast media will speak out on this issue, with the legal perspective provided by a federal judge. Featuring: Hon. Stephen Trott, U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit; Mary Louise Kelly, National Public Radio; Jane Mayer, The New Yorker; Scott Shane, New York Times; and Pierre Thomas, ABC News. Moderated by A. John Radsan, associate professor, former federal prosecutor and former assistant general counsel at the CIA. Free and open to the public.

Date: October 25
Location: William Mitchell College of Law
