▲ Bias in the Legal Profession: What Bias? and “The Ethics and Politicization of Occupational Regulation”

Three task forces of the Minnesota Supreme Court and the Hennepin County Bar will report on finding bias against women, minorities, and homosexuals in the Minnesota legal system. The second presentation will discuss the history and implications of occupational regulation of lawyers and other occupations. It will suggest that such regulation is, at its root, inconsistent with the ethical foundations of America’s commitment to equal opportunity.

Date: June 30, 2009
Location: Bloomington Sheraton, Bloomington
Time: 8:00 a.m.–11:30 a.m.
Credits: 2 bias credits / 1 ethics credit
