Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society Mondale-Quie Essay Contest

The Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society, with the support of the Minnesota Chapter of the American Board of Trial Advocates and the Civil Litigation Section of the Minnesota State Bar Association, is sponsoring an essay contest that is open to Minnesota high school juniors and seniors. Students have an opportunity receive up to $1,000 in scholarship money as they examine the role of the judiciary in our society.

Mondale-Quie Essay Contest Issue for 2018-2019:

It has been 150 years since the ratification of the 14th Amendment to the United States Constitution. The 14th Amendment was one of three “Reconstruction Amendments” ratified in the wake of the American Civil War. The Equal Protection Clause of the 14th Amendment provides, “No State shall . . . deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.” The central purpose of the Equal Protection Clause was to end discrimination based on race. Similarly, the Minnesota Constitution states, “No member of this state shall be disenfranchised or deprived of any of the rights or privileges secured to any citizen thereof.”

The Equal Protection Clause’s impacts how public schools and universities may treat students on the basis of race. The Equal Protection Clause plays a role in affirmative action in college admissions and busing of K-12 students. Most notably, the Equal Protection Clause was at the center of the landmark desegregation case Brown v. Board of Education.

Question to be answered: Do you think courts have decided issues of desegregation, busing, and affirmative action in public schools and universities correctly? Support your answer with citations to relevant sources.

What is the Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society?

The Minnesota Supreme Court Historical Society (“MSCHS”) was founded by lawyers, educators, judges, and other legal professionals who have a deep and abiding interest in the history of this State and the profound role that Minnesota's courts have played in that history. Our mission is to collect, preserve, and promote Minnesota's judicial history and to serve the interests of the bench and bar, the academic community, and the general public through educational programs, publications, and support of scholarly research.

Contest Objective

High school juniors and seniors must prepare to engage in everyday civil society where significant issues involving historical and constitutional issues arise; therefore, the Mondale-Quie Essay Contest issue has been developed to:

- Provide high school students with an understanding of the judiciary, including its role in society;
- Engage high school teachers and students in the exploration of the role of the judiciary in their lives; and
- Challenge high school students to strengthen their analytic and writing skills.

Eligibility

Minnesota high school students in grades 11 and 12 who attend a public or private school (including charter and alternative-learning programs) or who are home schooled in Minnesota are eligible to apply.

ESSAY REQUIREMENTS

ANY ENTRY THAT DOES NOT CONFORM TO ALL OF THE FOLLOWING REQUIREMENTS MAY BE DISQUALIFIED.

Format

- Type essay in English — free from spelling, punctuation, and grammatical errors.
- Use Arial or Times New Roman font, 12-point
- Double-space essay with 1” margins – top, bottom, right, and left.
- Place essay title on first page, top center
- Include your first and last name and page number on all pages, top right.

Length

The essay must be between 750 and 1,250 words. Report the number of words used at the end of your essay text, prior to the bibliography or works-cited page.

Word count does not include the bibliography or works-cited page, nor works cited in footnotes, if footnotes are used.

To obtain essay word count without the number of words used in the bibliography or works cited, highlight essay text only, go to computer word-count tool (under tools on computer tool bar). The word-count tool will read only the highlighted words.

Bibliography – Works Cited

Citation to a MINIMUM of four sources is required for research on this year's assigned With the exception of the Lesson Plans for Teachers, all of the resource suggestions on page five are acceptable. You are not required to use, nor are you limited to, the resource suggestions on page five.

A bibliography or works-cited page is required to identify research sources and should follow the Modern Language Association (MLA) guidelines. For more information, refer to the MLA Handbook for Writers of Research Papers, 7th edition at Research should include sources that examine more than one side of the issue. General encyclopedias (e.g., Wikipedia, Britannica, Americana, World Book) are unacceptable resources. Reputable free web sources may be used only to obtain primary source materials (i.e. Internet Modern History Sourcebook), and the bibliography or works cited must list the primary document source as the reference.

Online databases that index reference books, journals, magazines and newspapers are valid sources and must be cited according to the Modern Language Association's guidelines. See again: <http://owl.english.purdue.edu/owl/resource/747/01>.

The bibliography or works-cited page should be on a separate page at the conclusion of the essay.

RESOURCE SUGGESTIONS

Below are resources that you may, but are not required to, consider. You are not limited to these resources.
